The University District Council [University District Chamber of Commerce]

After discussing our New Years' resolutions, we moved onto the agenda. The neighborhood is planning a mobile health truck, modeling Downtown Seattle's mobile ambulance Opioid Recovery & Care Access \(ORCA\) Patient Outreach Division \(POD\), remembering the beautiful Orca Whales that one often sees, jumping out of the water at Pike Place Market.

Other beautification projects include the Carnegie Public Library, still under construction, and various murals. The one below is featured on the new Famous Chicken Restaurant at 45th and 'The Ave.' More Beautification of The Ave projects include Watering the Hanging Flower Pots, and painting the picnic benches, and counseling the many homeless people.

Holocaust Remembrance Day

Observed annually on January 27th by the UN, commemorating the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau in 1945, honoring the six million murdered Jewish people. Plus millions of other victims of Nazi persecution, and renewing commitments against hate, prejudice, and genocide. Its story stems from the need to remember this systematic extermination, educate future generations, and ensure such atrocities never recur.
