An Amazing Book and Person

Here we just received an author signed copy of "The Butler"... namely Eugene Allen. It even is signed by his son!

This week, a friend of the museum who likes watching ninja movies was here. And he wanted to find a book about 'buff guys.' because recently he was telling people about the strongest man in the world, and nobody believed him! They thought it was AI.

Joe Greenstein depicted on a product he sold

Born January 2, 1893
Suwałki, Poland

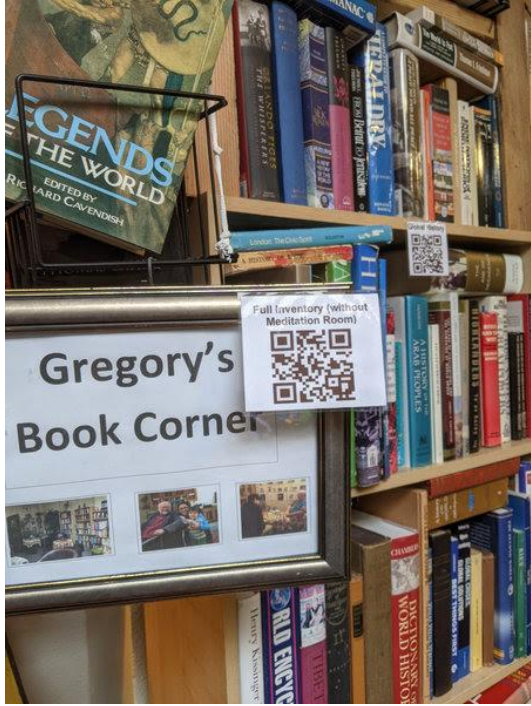

Died October 8, 1977 (aged 84)

With a little research we found who he was talking about, Joel Greenstein. No wonder his friends did not believe him! Although we did not have any 'The Mighty Atom' in our library, he was very happy to read about the only 'buff guy' we could find in our library, the Olympic swimmer Michael Phelps.

Reference Library

ChatGBT says: Within the Unity Museum’s library, our collection spans over 6,000 books—with materials on history, civil rights, and social justice alongside a dedicated selection of meditation and spiritual texts representing many faiths and traditions. While the broader collection invites critical learning and engagement with the world, the meditation room books offer a quieter path inward, emphasizing reflection, balance, and the shared spiritual teachings that connect humanity.
