A Royal Visit to Seattle a Century Ago

November 21, 2026 Noon - 1:30pm

Luncheon and presentation on November Saturday the 21st, at 12:00-1:30 at the Unity Museum.

It would mean a lot to us if you could be our guest. We would love to share this historic event. The Unity Museum even has a portrait of Queen Marie above the fireplace in the Welcome Lounge.

In 1926, Seattle's mayor was Betha Knight Landes, the first Female Mayor in the U.S. and she welcomed a very special guest to the Northwest.

November 4th 1926 is the day Queen Marie of Romania, the Granddaughter of Queen Victoria, visited Seattle.

During the day, Sam Hill took her up to cut a ribbon at the Grand Opening of the Peace Arch. In the afternoon they returned to Seattle and drove from Roosevelt High School down 15th Avenue for an event at the Seattle Yacht Club, where there was a meeting with 60 women of the Washington State Women's Association. It was during that afternoon that a tree was planted in Queen Marie's name. This was followed up by a party open to the public, in the Sam Hill Mansion that evening on Capitol Hill.

Halloween is In The Air At The Museum

Spooky day and night has arrived at our The Unity Museum this Saturday October 31st. Some of us might be in a costume, the rest of us appear as ourselves. Come and visit us for a treat. We're open that day from 11-2:30.

Weekly Object: Loom

The weather is getting chilly so the pioneer women were preparing for warm clothes. This is an example of one of the many looms women would have used back in the days.
